Individuals and organizations turn to Dan for representation in commercial, regulatory, and white collar criminal matters. His client roster includes companies and senior executives in a wide range of fields, from investment and merchant banking to investment management, law, health care, accounting, real estate, the arts, and entertainment.

Dan's experience spans trials, arbitrations, and appeals, as well as investigations by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and other regulatory agencies. Those matters have involved allegations of securities and other financial fraud, violations of the False Claims Act and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, claims brought under the Bankruptcy Code, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, attorney malpractice, and defamation.

Dan has been named a "Super Lawyer" in the New York metro area by the publication Super Lawyers.

Dan joined LSW in 1995 and became a partner in 2001.
